CEMA Restrictions Lifted

SunTrust Bank (SunTrust) removes restrictions related to Consolidated, Extension, and Modification Agreement (CEMA) transactions.

Effective Dates

This update is effective for loans locked on or after September 13, 2019.

Background Information

CEMA transactions, available in New York, offer potential tax savings to borrowers by consolidating an existing mortgage on a property with a new mortgage on the same property. Mortgage recording tax is calculated on the difference between the original balance and the new balance.

Bulletin Details

CEMA Eligibility

CEMA transactions are permitted without restriction.

Revised Materials

Click Agency Loan Programs, Fannie Mae HomeReady® and Freddie Mac Home Possible® Mortgages, and Correspondent Agency Overlay Matrix to review the revised product materials.

Former Guidelines

Previously, Suntrust did not accept CEMA transactions.
